PUBLIC HEALTH ACT 1997

SECTION 15 EXTENSION OF EMERGENCY DECLARATION

I, MARK VEITCH, the Director of Public Health, in pursuance of section 15(2) of the Public Health Act 1997 ("the Act"), in order to manage the risk to public health posed by the notifiable disease known as COVID-19 ("the disease"), declare that –

- (a) the public health emergency, declared in respect of the disease under section 14 of the Act and last extended on 6 May 2021 for a further period of 12 weeks commencing on 7 May 2021, still exists; and
- (b) the period during which the emergency declaration is in force is extended for a further period of 12 weeks commencing on 29 July 2021.

Dated this 28th day of July 2021

MARK VEITCH
Director of Public Health

DIRECTION UNDER SECTION 16

(Residential Aged Care Facilities – No. 12)

I, MARK VEITCH, the Director of Public Health, in pursuance of section 16 of the Public Health Act 1997 ("the Act"), in order to manage the threat to public health posed by the notifiable disease known as COVID-19 ("the disease"), direct that, commencing on 31 July 2021 –

- (a) subject to paragraph (b), a person must not enter, or remain on, the premises of a residential aged care facility in Tasmania unless –
  - (i) the person is a resident of the residential aged care facility, including a resident for the purposes of respite; or
  - (ii) the person is an employee or contractor of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (iii) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of providing goods or services in respect of the residential aged care facility, whether the goods or services are provided for consideration or on a voluntary basis; or
  - (iv) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of providing goods or services to a resident of the residential aged care facility, whether the goods or services are provided for consideration or on a voluntary basis; or
  - (v) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of end of life support for a resident of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (vi) the person's presence at the premises is for the purposes of a care and support visit to a resident of the residential aged care facility; or
  - (vii) the person's presence at the premises is required for the purposes of emergency management or law enforcement; and
- (b) despite paragraph (a), a person referred to in paragraph (a)(ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi) or (vii) must not enter, or remain on, the premises of a residential aged care facility in Tasmania if –
  - (i) during the 14-day period immediately preceding the entry, the person arrived in Tasmania from a place outside of Tasmania that is a medium risk area or premises, or a high risk area or premises, as determined by the Director of Public Health or his or her delegate; or
  - (ii) during the 14-day period immediately preceding the entry, the person had known contact with a person who –
    - (A) has been diagnosed with the disease; or
    - (B) is reasonably suspected of having the disease; or
  - (iii) the person has one or more clinical symptoms of the disease; or
  - (iv) the person is required to be in isolation or quarantine, in respect of the disease, under the Act or the Emergency Management Act 2006; and
- (c) paragraph (b)(i), (ii) and (iv) does not apply in respect of a person if –
  - (i) the Director of Public Health, or his or her delegate, is satisfied that the person is entering, or remaining on, the premises of the residential aged care facility for the purpose of providing end of life support for a resident; and

- (ii) the Director of Public Health, or his or her delegate, has authorised the person to enter, or remain on, those premises for those purposes; and
- (iii) in addition to any other legal requirements under the Act, the person complies with any additional requirements imposed on the person by the Director of Public Health, or his or her delegate, to ensure the safety of the person, the staff of the residential aged care facility and the residents at the residential aged care facility; and
- (d) paragraph (b)(iii) does not apply in respect of a person if the person is entering, or remaining on, the premises of the residential aged care facility for the purpose of providing end of life support for a resident; and
- (e) paragraph (b) and (i) does not apply in respect of a person entering the premises of a residential aged care facility for the purposes of providing emergency medical treatment (including transport), emergency management or law enforcement services; and
- (f) paragraph (b)(ii) does not apply in respect of a person entering the premises of a residential aged care facility if –
- (i) the known contact with another person, diagnosed with the disease or reasonably suspected of having the disease, occurred as part of the person's employment; and
- (ii) the person was wearing PPE consistent with, or at the level required by, the National Guidelines for public health units developed by the Communicable Diseases Network Australia in respect of the disease; and
- (iii) there was no breach to the PPE during that contact with the other person; and
- (g) the operator of a residential aged care facility in Tasmania must take all reasonable steps to ensure that a person does not enter, or remain on, the premises of the residential aged care facility if the person is prohibited from doing so under paragraph (a) or (b); and
- (h) for the avoidance of doubt, paragraphs (b) and (g) do not prevent a person who is a resident of a residential aged care facility from leaving, and returning to, the premises of the residential aged care facility; and
- (i) the operator of a residential aged care facility in Tasmania must ensure that all persons who enter, or remain on, the premises of the residential aged care facility have been screened, as directed by the Director of Public Health or his or her delegate from time to time, before the person so enters, or remains on, the premises; and
- (j) in this direction –
- (i) care and support visit, in relation to a resident at a residential aged care facility, means a visit made to the resident, for the purposes of providing care and support to the resident, in one of the following locations:
- (A) in the resident's room, outdoors or in a specific non-communal area, as designated by the residential aged care facility;
- (B) in a specific communal area, as designated by the residential aged care facility, if each person in that area maintains, where practicable, a distance of not less than 1.5 metres between the person and each other person in the area; and
- (ii) clinical symptoms of the disease means the following symptoms:
- (A) a temperature of 37.5°C or more;
- (B) night sweats;
- (C) chills;
- (D) coughing;
- (E) shortness of breath;
- (F) sore throat;
- (G) loss of taste;
- (H) loss of smell; and
- (iii) flexible care subsidy has the same meaning as in the Aged Care Act 1997 of the Commonwealth; and
- (iv) operator, of a residential aged care facility, means a person who owns, controls or operates the residential aged care facility; and
- (v) residential aged care facility means a facility at which accommodation, and personal care or nursing care or both, are provided to a person in respect of whom a residential care subsidy or a flexible care subsidy is payable under the Aged Care Act 1997 of the Commonwealth; and
- (vi) residential care subsidy has the same meaning as in the Aged Care Act 1997 of the Commonwealth; and
- (k) on 31 July 2021, the direction, given by me on 24 February 2021 and entitled Residential Aged Care Facilities – No. 11, is revoked.

Dated this 29th day of July 2021

MARK VEITCH
Director of Public Health

Promotion Without Advertising

AGENCY: PRIMARY INDUSTRIES, PARKS, WATER AND ENVIRONMENT

It is my intention to request the Head of the State Service to exercise discretion to not advertise the following duties in accordance with section 40 (2) of the State Service Act 2000 and to promote the following permanent employee:

Name: E Tierney

Duties Assigned: Executive Officer

Description of the Role: Provide high level, executive secretarial and administrative support to the National Parks and Wildlife Advisory and other community committees and ensuring timely information is provided to the community to ensure community engagement and the opportunity to participate in decision making. Co-ordinate liaison and provision of advice among key stakeholders involved in the management of the Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area (TWWHA) including the Ministerial office, State and Commonwealth officers and departmental officers to assist the State Party and the Tasmanian Government in managing and administering the property in accordance with international obligations and the statutory framework.

Essential Requirements: Nil

Desirable Requirements: Relevant tertiary qualifications in protected area management are desirable. A current motor vehicle driver's licence.

State Service employees aggrieved by this intention may make application to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for a review under section 50(1)(b) of the State Service Act 2000. Applications for review are to be lodged with the Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 14 days of the publication of this notice in the Tasmanian Government Gazette.

Signed: Tim Baker

Erratum

Erratum: The notice of a Fixed-Term Appointment of greater than 12 months of E. Hunn to the position of Team Leader, Planning & Reintegration in the State Services Notices of 7 July 2021 is hereby rescinded.

Advertise in the TASMANIAN GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

If you want to communicate your business' products and services to government agencies, there is no better way than advertising in the weekly Government Gazette.

Not only delivered in hard copy format, the gazette is also fully digital, and compatible across phone, tablet and computer platforms. Full colour and the ability to embed hyperlinks to your website makes the digital gazette a powerful advertising tool.
