Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industries

OFFICE of the TASMANIAN ECONOMIC REGULATOR

Notice of the making of a reserve price determination

The Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industries Act 2008 requires the Tasmanian Economic Regulator to make a reserve price determination for Owner-Operator Taxi Licences for each taxi area in Tasmania.

This notice advises that the reserve price determination has been made. A copy of the price determination, which is included in the Tasmanian Economic Regulator's final report, is available at <https://www.economicregulator.tas.gov.au/taxis/2021-owner-operator-taxi-licence-reserve-price-investigation>.

Before making the reserve price determination, the Tasmanian Economic Regulator conducted a price determination investigation to gather information, as required under the Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industries Act.

The reserve price determination sets out the minimum prices that new owner-operator taxi licences can be purchased from the Transport Commission between 1 December 2021 and 31 December 2025 for each taxi area, as well as a statement of reasons for the reserve prices.

As the annual release of new owner-operator taxi licences has been suspended until 31 December 2024 under the Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industries Act, the reserve prices set out in the reserve price determination will apply in all taxi areas from 1 January 2025.

The reserve prices for new owner-operator taxi licences for each of the 24 taxi areas and start date for each reserve price in the price determination are as below:

From 1 January 2025, the effect of the reserve price determination is that when, in that year, the Transport Commission makes additional owner-operator taxi licences available for sale in all taxi areas as required under the Taxi and Hire Vehicle Industries Act, the minimum prices to purchase these licences from the Commission for each taxi area are as set out in the column titled "1 January 2025" in the above table.
