REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Proposed Mine Safety Legislation

THE DEPARTMENT of Justice invites comment on the Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) on 'Mine Safety in Tasmania, Proposal to Amend the Workplace Health and Safety Act 1995.'

The RIS is accompanied by an Information Paper that provides further detail on the proposals.

The proposed Act amendments will add provisions applicable to mining, with the objectives to:

- secure the health and safety of persons at mines and persons who may be affected by mining operations;
- ensure identification of hazards, assessment of risk of injury or harm, and elimination, management and reduction of such risks;

- facilitate effective management of occupational health and safety; facilitate and foster cooperation and consultation between operators, employers and workers; and foster continuous improvement; and
- ensure effective provisions for appropriate emergency management, preparedness and response are developed and maintained at mines.

The RIS and the accompanying Information Paper are available at www.wst.tas.gov.au. If you wish to view the paper at a Workplace Standards Tasmania office or arrange alternative access, phone 1300 366 322 (inside Tasmania) or (03) 6233 7657 (outside Tasmania).

Comments on the RIS should be forwarded in writing to Workplace Standards Tasmania, PO Box 56, Rosny Park 7018 or via email to wstinfo@justice.tas.gov.au

WATER MANAGEMENT ACT 1999

Public Notice of an Application for the Establishment of an Irrigation District under the Water Management Act 1999

Caveside - Dairy Plains Irrigation District

NOTICE is hereby given in accordance with Section 174 of the Water Management Act 1999 that an application has been received under Section 168 for the establishment of the Caveside - Dairy Plains Irrigation District.

The application relates to the establishment of an irrigation district covering part of the Mersey catchment. The proposed Caveside - Dairy Plains Irrigation District will be used to enhance the agricultural productivity within the district through the introduction of additional irrigation water. Tasmanian Irrigation Schemes Pty Ltd ("TIS") has contracts in place to sell 4,270ML of irrigation rights from the Meander Dam to irrigators within the proposed district. Water delivery will be achieved through the Caveside Pipeline, which is currently under construction. Irrigators will access water from Dale Brook, Western Creek, Ritchies Creek, Cubits Creek, Lobster Rivulet or directly from the pipeline itself. The proposed Scheme will be managed by TIS.

The application has been made by the Tasmanian Irrigation Schemes Pty Ltd, a water entity declared by the Minister under section 166(1)(e) of the Act.

The application will be on public display until close of business, 13 January 2010, during normal business hours at the Department's Devonport, Launceston or Hobart offices :

WATER MANAGEMENT ACT 1999

Public Notice of an Application for the Establishment of an Irrigation District under the Water Management Act 1999

Great Forester Irrigation District

NOTICE is hereby given in accordance with Section 174 of the Water Management Act 1999 that an application has been received under Section 168 for the establishment of the Great Forester Irrigation District.

The application relates to the establishment of an irrigation district covering part of the Great Forester River catchment. The proposed Great Forester Irrigation District will be used to provide a secure and reliable supply of water for the irrigation of land within the area of the district. In doing so, the establishment of the proposed irrigation district will further the objectives of the Water Management Act 1999, and in particular promote sustainable use and facilitate economic development of the water resource, recognising and fostering the significant social and economic benefits resulting from the supply of water for commercial irrigation businesses in the Great Forester River catchment.. The proposed Irrigation District will be irrigated with water supplied from the proposed Headquarters Road Dam, utilising the Great Forester River to deliver water downstream. Installation of pipes and pumps may be necessary to deliver water to holders of Irrigation Rights issued by the TIDB. The pipeline's on-going operation and maintenance will continue to be the responsibility of the Tasmanian Irrigation Development Board Pty Ltd. The proposed Scheme will be managed by TIDB.

The application has been made by the Tasmanian Irrigation Development Board Pty Ltd, a water entity declared by the Minister under section 166(1)(e) of the Act.

The application will be on public display until close of business, 13 January 2010, during normal business hours at the Department's Devonport, Launceston or Hobart offices :

Public Notice of an Application for the Establishment of an Irrigation District under the Water Management Act 1999

Sassafras Wesley Vale Irrigation District

NOTICE is hereby given in accordance with Section 174 of the Water Management Act 1999 that an application has been received under Section 168 for the establishment of the Sassafras Wesley Vale Irrigation District.

The application relates to the establishment of an irrigation district covering part of the Rubicon catchment. The proposed Sassafras Wesley Vale Irrigation District will be used to provide a secure and reliable supply of water for the irrigation of land within the area district. The establishment of the proposed irrigation district will further the objectives of the Water Management Act 1999, and promote sustainable use and facilitate economic development of the water resource, recognising and fostering the significant social and economic benefits resulting from the supply of water for commercial irrigation businesses in the Sassafras Wesley Vale area.

The application has been made by the Tasmanian Irrigation Development Board Pty Ltd, a water entity declared by the Minister under section 166(1)(e) of the Act.

The application will be on public display until close of business, 13 January 2010, during normal business hours at the Department's Devonport, Launceston or Hobart offices :
