Senior Registrar, ICU (512836).

Applications Close:—Friday, 2 May 2014.

Salary:—To be negotiated.

Salaried Medical Practitioners (AMA Tasmania/DHHS) Agreement 2009, Specialist Medical Practitioner (Salary commensurate with qualifications and experience).

Fixed-term part-time shift worker, working 38 hours per fortnight. Commencing July 2014 until 02 February 2015.

Location:—Intensive Care Unit, Royal Hobart Hospital.

Duties:—The Royal Hobart Hospital is the main teaching hospital of Southern Tasmania and Tasmania's tertiary referral hospital. Consequently the Department of Critical Care Medicine cares for patients admitted with a wide range of conditions including acute medical and surgical, neurosurgical, cardiothoracic, severe trauma, and burns.

The unit provides a very supportive and active training environment for developing trainee knowledge and clinical skills and for exam preparation (Primary and General Fellowship exams). Many trainees working in the unit have enjoyed great success with their General Fellowship exams and have attributed much of this success to the clinical exposure and teaching support gained from within the department. Unit run teaching sessions, procedural workshops and BASIC courses provide formal teaching for trainees and opportunity for future educators to contribute. The Department has been accredited by the College of Intensive Care Medicine as a C24 unit.

A part-time Senior Registrar position will be available from mid year 2014 until February 2015. The after-hours clinical responsibility for senior registrars involves an on call roster, which provides a 'junior Consultant experience' for trainees. Senior Registrars are rostered to non-clinical time to facilitate their research, formal project completion, as well as contributing to education and quality assurance work for the Unit. The Department will assist trainees in finding anaesthetic and medical rotations to complete their CICM training.
