Who are we?

The Tasmanian Health Service is an innovative and dynamic organisation dedicated to improving the health and wellbeing of our community. We are committed to providing the highest levels of healthcare and services.

Who are we looking for?

We are seeking a motivated and experienced Staff Specialist, Emergency Medicine, who will work as part of the Department of Emergency across the North West Region. Servicing a population of approximately 116,000, the Staff Specialist provides a specialist emergency medical care to patients attending the Department of Emergency medicine at the North West Regional Hospital (NWRH) and Mersey Community Hospital (MCH).

The Emergency department at NWRH has 6 months of advanced training with ACEM and for 2016 has 80% advanced trainees as registrars. The average number of patients per day is 70 with a 20-25% admission rate. The NWRH is the main hospital for the area receiving referrals from MCH, King Island and 4 smaller rural health facilities.

The Emergency Department at MCH has 3 months training with ACEM as a special skills post and also active in training doctors for the emergency medicine certificate and diploma courses. The average number of patients per day is the same as NWRH but the admission rate is less at 15% of which half are short stay admission and transfers to another higher facility.

This position isn't just another job in another hospital, it can be your chance to demonstrate your strong clinical acumen, influence and foster an enthusiastic team of health professionals, review service requirements and execute new models of care.

We enjoy a strong relationship with the University of Tasmania's Rural Clinical School, and our secondary care facilities are both associated teaching hospitals with contemporary teaching environments. THS-North West Region also offers excellent Continuing Professional Development benefits and a supportive working environment.

North West Tasmania also offers a brilliant lifestyle for families, with affordable housing, excellent access and choice of education located within strong and vibrant rural and urban centres. Our pristine wilderness and coastlines are on your doorstep and your work/life balance will ensure that you have the best of both worlds!

We offer contemporary, well equipped work environments; excellent remuneration and relocation assistance. Assistance with AHPRA registration and visa sponsorship available.

What can we offer?

Negotiable salary including superannuation, and access to salary packaging.

Relocation and accommodation assistance.

Contemporary, well equipped work environments, new department at NWRH in 2015 and at MCH in 2013.

Flexible work/life balance.

Attractive Salary Package.

Dynamic team environment.

Commitment to ongoing professional development.

Conjoint appointment with UTAS.

Opportunity to be part of the Tasmanian retrieval Service.

For more information please contact Marielle Ruigrok at marielle.ruigrok@ths.tas.gov.au or phone (03) 6430 6633 or 0412744 759.
