Investigations Officer

The Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) works in partnership with 14 National Boards to implement the national regulatory scheme for health professionals. The purpose of health practitioner regulation is to protect the public by ensuring that only health practitioners who have the skills, qualifications and knowledge to provide safe care are registered.

As an Investigations Officer, you will help to manage notifications made about health practitioner's health, conduct and performance. We are looking for a highly organised person with a professional and positive attitude who is able to work in a high volume environment. The successful candidate will demonstrate strong attention to detail, excellent time management skills, well developed written communication and interpersonal skills, sound analytical and problem solving skills and pride themselves on their service achievements

Skills & experience required:

- Relevant tertiary qualification (i.e. Lawyer or a Health Practitioner within Nursing, Medical or similar field);
- Knowledge and experience in the conduct of investigations or case management;
- Strong written skills including experience in writing reports and recommendations;
- Ability to apply legislation, policies and procedures in a regulatory environment;
- Well developed interpersonal and oral communication skills with the ability to build productive working relationships;
- Excellent organisational skills including the ability to prioritise, multi-task, meet deadlines while having strong attention to detail.

Benefits:

- Base of $94,740 per annum
- Multiple 12 month fixed term contract positions
- Enjoy a collaborative and supportive work environment

Promotion without advertising

AGENCY: EDUCATION

It is my intention to request the Head of the State Service to exercise discretion to not advertise the following duties in accordance with section 40 (2) of the State Service Act 2000 and to promote the following permanent employee:

Name: N Weavers

Duties Assigned: Teacher

Description of the Role: To implement and manage appropriate learning programs for students and to assess individual student progress.

Essential Requirements:

- Qualifications as established by the Tasmanian Industrial Commission in the Teaching Service (Tasmanian Public Sector) Award, 2005.
- Current certificate of registration; or provisional registration; or limited authority to teach granted by the Teachers Registration Board (Tasmania) in accordance with the provisions of the Teachers Registration Act 2000. Please note that a person with a limited authority to teach can only be employed on a fixed-term basis.
- The Registration to Work with Vulnerable People Act 2013 requires persons undertaking work in a regulated activity to be registered. A regulated activity is a child related service or activity defined in the Registration to Work with Vulnerable People Regulations 2014. This registration must remain current and valid at all times whilst employed in this role and the status of this may be checked at any time during employment.
- Current Tasmanian Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (Registration Status – Employment)

Desirable Requirements:

- Four years or more training as defined in the Teaching Service (Tasmanian Public Sector) Award 2005

State Service employees aggrieved by this intention may make application to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for a review under section 50(1)(b) of the State Service Act 2000. Applications for review are to be lodged with the Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 14 days of the publication of this notice in the Tasmanian Government Gazette.

Signed: Jenny Gale
