1. Tasmanian Centre for Global Learning Inc auspicing Students Against Racism – 17/08/008 – Application for an exemption granted under section 57 of the Act for a period of 60 days.

This exemption has been granted to permit Tasmanian Centre for Global Learning Inc auspicing Students Against Racism to advertise and host 4 women-only events called Women's Business on the basis that:

- a) The Women's Business events encourage and support women of migrant, refugee and/or asylum seeker backgrounds to participate and celebrate their cultural differences through fashion and performances without fear of disrespecting their culture; and
- b) Respecting the participating women's cultures by excluding men from attending the Women's Business events.

Granted on the 23rd day of August 2017.

The exemption is for the period of 60 days commencing from the date granted and inclusive of the days the events will be held (1 and 29 September, and 2 and 3 October 2017) subject to the fulfilment of the conditions that

Tasmanian Centre for Global Learning Inc auspicing Students Against Racism:

- a) report as soon as practicable after the event to the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner on the success of the event and any issues or concerns raised about this exemption; and
- b) on at least one occasion in the 6 months immediately after this order is made, organise and promote community education for the members of Students Against Racism through the Equal Opportunity Tasmania's community education program to increase awareness of rights and obligations under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1998 (Tas).

A person may apply to the Anti-Discrimination Tribunal for a review of the Commissioner's decision within 28 days from the date of this notice being published.
