Personal Information Protection

PERSONAL INFORMATION PROTECTION ACT

Exemption under section 14

I, Elise Archer, Attorney-General and Minister for Justice, being and as the Minister responsible for the administration of the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 (“the Act”), upon being satisfied that the public benefit in doing so outweighs to a substantial degree the public benefit from compliance with the personal information protection principles, hereby determine to approve an application dated 27 November 2018 made under section 13 of the Act by the Department of State Growth for an exemption from compliance with the following provisions of the Act with respect to the following information as specified in that application:

- (1) section 17(1) of the Act in so far as it requires compliance with Personal Information Protection Principle 1 (other than with clause 1(2) requiring collection to occur only by lawful means) and Personal Information Protection Principle 2;
- (2) collection by an accredited operator (for the purposes of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011) who is, or becomes, a personal information custodian by reason of the terms of a passenger service contract (for the purposes of that Act) of video footage (including closed circuit television footage) of persons travelling on the regular passenger service (for the purposes of that Act) that is the subject of that contract, and the supply of that footage by the accredited operator to the Department of State Growth;
- (3) collection and use by the Department of State Growth of video footage (including closed circuit television footage) of persons travelling on a regular passenger service that is the subject of passenger service contract (for the purposes of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011).

I have approved the application on condition that the personal information collected by, or collected and supplied by an accredited operator to, the Department of State Growth, is used by the Department for the all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) verifying compliance by an accredited operator (for the purposes of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011) of its obligations under the passenger service contract in respect of that regular passenger service (including in relation to the collection by the accredited operator of passenger fares from passengers who are required to pay fares to use a regular passenger service that is the subject of passenger service contract);
- (b) verifying amounts properly payable by the Crown to an accredited operator under a passenger service contract in respect of a regular passenger service;
- (c) verifying the payment of fares by passengers who are required to pay fares to use a regular passenger service that is the subject of passenger service contract;
- (d) assessing demand for a regular passenger service that is the subject of passenger service contract;
- (e) assessing whether a regular passenger service is being used in conformity with any applicable service eligibility guideline issued under section 51 of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011.

Dated the 21st day of January 2019

HON ELISE ARCHER MP, Attorney-General and Minister for Justice.

Details of the Application

The Department of State Growth applied under section 13 of the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 (“the Act”) for an exemption under section 14 to allow the collection and disclosure of information, consisting of video footage (including CCTV footage), recorded on a motor vehicle being used to operate a regular passenger service under a passenger service contract (for the purposes of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011), for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) verifying compliance by an accredited operator (for the purposes of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011) of its obligations under the passenger service contract in respect of that regular passenger service (including in relation to the collection by the accredited operator of passenger fares from passengers who are required to pay fares to use a regular passenger service that is the subject of passenger service contract);
- (b) verifying amounts properly payable by the Crown to an accredited operator under a passenger service contract in respect of a regular passenger service;
- (c) verifying the payment of fares by, passengers who are required to pay fares to use a regular passenger service that is the subject of passenger service contract;
- (d) assessing demand for a regular passenger service that is the subject of passenger service contract;
- (e) assessing whether a regular passenger service is being used in conformity with any applicable service eligibility guideline issued under section 51 of the Passenger Transport Services Act 2011.
