Land Acquisition

LAND ACQUISITION ACT 1993

NOTICE OF ACQUISITION

(Section 18)

In pursuance of Section 18 of the Land Acquisition Act 1993, I, Timothy William Grant, Valuer-General acting as delegate of the Minister of the Crown for the time being administering the Land Acquisition Act 1993 do hereby declare that the easements in the Schedules hereto is taken and vested in the Crown absolutely under the said Act for road purposes.

Given under my hand this 19th day of November 2020.

Tim Grant
Valuer-General
Department of Primary Industries, Parks, Water and Environment
134 Macquarie Street, Hobart

SCHEDULE ONE

FIRSTLY an easement in terms of Schedule Two over the land situate in the Parish of Sorell, Land District of Pembroke shown as 'Easement of Support Variable Width' on Plan of Survey P179776 in the Land Titles Office being the Easement Land consisting of 172m<sup>2</sup> comprised in Folio of the Register Volume 208412 Folio 1 of which Midway Holdings Pty Ltd is the registered proprietor.

SECONDLY an easement in terms of Schedule Three over the land situate in the Parish of Sorell, Land District of Pembroke shown as 'Drainage Easement Variable Width' on Plan of Survey P179776 in the Land Titles Office being the Easement Land comprised in Folio of the Register Volume 208412 Folio 1 of which Midway Holdings Pty Ltd is the registered proprietor.

SCHEDULE TWO

The Easement of Support is defined as follows: -

Firstly, all the full and free right and liberty for the Crown, its employees, agents and contractors at all times:

- a. to have access to and enter upon the Easement Land making good all damage occasioned thereby, for the purpose of installing Rock Bolts;
- b. to install, inspect, alter, repair, renew, and maintain the Rock Bolts on the Easement Land.
- c. to cut away, remove and keep clear all trees which may at any time encroach or be in or on the Easement Land and which may endanger or interfere with the proper installation and operation of the Rock Bolts and make good any damage occasioned thereby;
- d. to remove and keep clear all fencing and other obstructions or erections of any nature whatsoever which may at any time encroach or be in or on the Easement Land and which may endanger or interfere with the proper operation of the Rock Bolts and make good any damage occasioned thereby;
- e. to have the right to have the Rock Bolts remain on the Easement Land at all times.

Secondly the benefit of a covenant for the Crown not to excavate or penetrate the ground howsoever to a depth exceeding 1.2 metres to the intent that the burden of the covenant may run with and bind the Easement Land and every part thereof and that the benefit may be annexed to the easement first hereinbefore described.

Rock bolt means a steel rod drilled at or near a horizontal angle to the ground below the natural surface behind a retaining wall to provide structural support for the retaining wall.

SCHEDULE THREE

The Drainage Easement is defined as follows: -

The full right and liberty for the Crown at all times to:

1. enter and remain upon the Easement Land with or without employees, contractors, agents and all other persons duly authorised by it and with or without machinery, vehicles, plant and equipment;
2. investigate, take soil, rock and other samples, survey, open and break up and excavate the Easement Land for any purpose or activity that the Crown is authorised to do or undertake;
3. install, retain, operate, modify, relocate, maintain, inspect, cleanse and repair the Infrastructure;
4. remove and replace the Infrastructure;
5. run and pass sewage and storm water;
6. do all works reasonably required in connection with such activities or as may be authorised or required by any law:
  - a) without doing unnecessary damage to the Easement Land; and
  - b) leaving the Easement Land in a clean and tidy condition.
7. if the Easement Land is not directly accessible from a highway, then for the purpose of undertaking any of the preceding activities the Crown may with or without employees, contractors, agents and all other persons authorised by it, and with or without machinery, vehicles, plant and equipment enter the Lot from the highway at any then existing vehicle entry and cross the Lot to the Easement Land; and
8. use the Easement Land as a right of carriageway for the purpose of undertaking any of the preceding purposes on other land, the Crown reinstating any damage that it causes in doing so to any boundary fence of the Lot.

Provided always that:

1. the registered proprietors of the Lot in the folio of the Register ("the Owner") must not without the written consent of the Crown first had and obtained and only in compliance with any conditions which form the consent:
  - a) alter, excavate, plough, drill or otherwise penetrate the ground level of the Easement Land;
  - b) install, erect or plant any building, structure, fence, pit, well, footing, pipeline, tree, shrub or other object on or in the Easement Land;
  - c) remove any thing that supports, protects or covers any Infrastructure on or in the Easement Land;
  - d) do any thing which will or might damage or contribute to damage to any of the Infrastructure on or in the Easement Land;
  - e) in any way prevent or interfere with the proper exercise and benefit of the Easement Land by the Crown or its employees, contractors, agents and all other persons duly authorised by it; or
  - f) permit or allow any action which the Owner must not do or acquiesce in that action.
2. the Crown is not required to fence any part of the Easement Land.
3. the Owner may erect a fence across the Easement Land at the boundaries of the Lot.

4. the Owner may erect a gate across any part of the Easement Land subject to these conditions:
  - a) the Owner must provide the Crown with a key to any lock which would prevent the opening of the gate; and
  - b) if the Owner does not provide the Crown with that key or the key provided does not fit the lock, the Crown may cut the lock from the gate.
5. if the Owner causes damage to any of the Infrastructure, the Owner is liable for the actual cost to the Crown of the repair of the Infrastructure damaged.
6. if the Owner fails to comply with any of the preceding conditions, without forfeiting any right of action, damages or otherwise against the Owner, the Crown may:
  - a) reinstate the ground level of the Easement Land; or
  - b) remove from the Easement Land any building, structure, pit, well, footing, pipeline, tree, shrub or other object; or
  - c) replace any thing that supported, protected or covered the Infrastructure.

Interpretation:

‘Infrastructure’ means infrastructure owned or for which the Crown is responsible and includes but is not limited to:

- a) sewer pipes and water pipes and associated valves;
- b) inspection and access pits;
- c) markers or signs indicating the location of the Easement Land, the Infrastructure or any warnings or restrictions with respect to the Easement Land or the Infrastructure;
- d) any thing reasonably required to support, protect or cover any of the Infrastructure;
- e) any other Infrastructure whether of a similar nature or not to the preceding which is reasonably required for the piping of sewerage or water, through the Easement Land or monitoring or managing that activity; and
- f) where the context permits, any part of the Infrastructure.

Personal Information Protection

PERSONAL INFORMATION PROTECTION ACT 2004

EXEMPTION UNDER SECTION 14

I, Elise Archer, Minister for Justice, being and as the Minister responsible for the administration of the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 ("the Act"), upon being satisfied that the public benefit in doing so outweighs to a substantial degree the public benefit from compliance with the Personal Information Protection Principles, hereby approve an application dated 24 September 2020 made under section 13 of the Act by the Department of Communities Tasmania for an exemption from compliance with the Act, subject to the following conditions:

1. Any information that, but for this exemption, would be protected by the Act can be disclosed on request to the Department of Justice, whereby such information is, or as the potential to be, relevant to an actual or potential civil claim against the State of Tasmania;
2. If information is returned pursuant to such a request that is not relevant and is not potentially relevant to an actual or potential civil claim, it will be returned or destroyed as per the election of the Agency of origin, and in compliance with the Archives Act 1983. This does not include information that may become relevant to a claim, information that should be retained so as to preserve the integrity of a record as a whole, or for similar or related purposes.

Dated this 12th day of November 2020.

HON ELISE ARCHER MP
Attorney-General and Minister for Justice

Details of the Application

The Department of Communities Tasmania has applied under Section 13 of the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 ("the Act") for an exemption under Section 14 of the Act to allow for information its custody and control to be disclosed and used by the Department of Justice for the purpose of investigating and responding to civil litigation and/or potential civil litigation, brought against the State of Tasmania.

The exemption is to ensure that all information relevant to civil claim can be obtained by the State of Tasmania, and utilised within the constraints of the law, whilst still protecting the privacy of individuals. This will assist in ensuring that both the State and claimants are able to access all relevant information that may apply to a matter.
