PUBLIC HEALTH ACT 1997

DIRECTION UNDER SECTION 16

(Airports and aircrafts – No. 3)

I, MARK VEITCH, the Director of Public Health, in pursuance of section 16 of the Public Health Act 1997 ("the Act"), in order to manage the threat to public health posed by the notifiable disease known as COVID-19 ("the disease"), direct that, commencing on 26 May 2021 –

- (a) a person must wear a fitted face covering while he or she –
 - (i) is in such part of the airport that is indoors and is open to passengers, or other members of the public, at the time the person is at the airport; or
 - (ii) is a passenger, or person intending to travel, on an aircraft that is at the airport and the person is transiting between the arrivals, or departure, gate at the airport and the aircraft; or
 - (iii) is on-board a domestic commercial aircraft that is –
 - (A) at the airport; or
 - (B) arriving at, or departing from, the airport; or
 - (C) within Tasmanian airspace; and
- (b) paragraph (a) does not apply in respect of the following persons:
 - (i) a child who has not attained the age of 12 years;
 - (ii) a person who –
 - (A) holds a medical certificate, or other documentation by a medical practitioner within the meaning of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931, that certifies that the person has a physical, or mental health, illness, condition or disability that makes the wearing of a fitted face covering unsuitable; and
 - (B) produces a legible copy of the medical certificate, or other documentation, if requested to do so by a person in authority at the airport;
 - (iii) a person who –
 - (A) holds an exemption, or is a person within a class of persons specified in an exemption, from the requirements of paragraph (a) that is given by the Director of Public Health or his or her delegate; and
 - (B) produces a legible copy of the exemption if requested to do so by a person in authority at the airport;
- (c) paragraph (a) does not apply to a person in following circumstances if the person wears a fitted face covering as soon as is practicable after the relevant circumstances end:
 - (i) the person removes the fitted face covering to communicate with a person who is deaf, or has impaired hearing, and visibility of the mouth is essential for the communication;
 - (ii) the wearing of the fitted face covering would create a risk to the health or safety of the person;
 - (iii) the person removes the fitted face covering to enable clear enunciation, or visibility of the mouth, as part of his or her employment or training;

- (iv) the person is orally consuming food, drink or medicine;
 - (v) the person is undergoing medical care, or treatment, that is unable to be provided while the person wears a fitted face covering;
 - (vi) the person is requested to remove the fitted face covering, by a person in authority at the airport, to ascertain or confirm the identity of the person;
 - (vii) the person –
 - (A) is employed, or engaged, as an airport worker at the airport or as a member of a domestic flight crew of an aircraft; and
 - (B) while so employed or engaged, is in an area of the airport, or aircraft, that is not open to passengers or other members of the public;
 - (viii) the person may lawfully remove, or is lawfully required to remove, the fitted face covering;
 - (ix) such other circumstances that are specified in an exemption, from the requirements of paragraph (a), that is given by the Director of Public Health or his or her delegate; and
- (d) a person, other than a person to whom paragraph (b) applies, must carry a fitted face covering while he or she –
 - (i) is in such part of the airport that is indoors and is open to passengers, or other members of the public, at the time the person is at the airport; or
 - (ii) is a passenger, or person intending to travel, on an aircraft that is at the airport and is transiting between the arrivals, or departure, gate at the airport and the aircraft; or
 - (iii) is on-board a domestic commercial aircraft that is –
 - (A) at the airport; or
 - (B) arriving at, or departing from, the airport; or
 - (C) within Tasmanian airspace; and
 - (e) in this direction –
 - (i) airport means premises that contain an aerodrome
 - (A) at which facilities are available for the arrival of a commercial aircraft into, or the departure of a commercial aircraft from, the premises; and
 - (B) other than a building, structure or distinct outdoor space on those premises if that building, structure or space is not used in connection with aircraft that are used, or are intended to be used, to provide passengers with transportation or touring, whether within Australia or internationally; and
 - (ii) airport worker, at an airport, includes the following persons employed, or engaged, to work at the airport:
 - (A) an engineer or other technical staff;
 - (B) a cleaner;
 - (C) a baggage handler;
 - (D) a person involved in the delivery or removal of food, goods or other things in connection with an aircraft at the airport;
 - (E) a person employed or engaged by an airline that is operating at the airport;
 - (F) a person providing services relating to law enforcement or border security; and

- (iii) domestic commercial aircraft means an aircraft that is used to provide passengers with transportation or touring, on a commercial basis, only within Australia; and
 - (iv) fitted face covering means a covering, other than a shield, that fits securely around the face and is designed, or made, to be worn over the nose and mouth to provide protection against infection; and
 - (v) member of a domestic flight crew means a person, on a domestic commercial aircraft, who is employed or engaged as –
 - (A) a pilot, a crew member providing essential safety or maintenance functions or a cabin crew member actively servicing a flight on the domestic commercial aircraft; or
 - (B) a pilot, crew member or cabin crew member who is not working on the domestic commercial aircraft but is travelling on the domestic commercial aircraft to be able to commence work at another location; or
 - (C) an aeromedical services crew member providing patient transport, or emergency medical care, to a patient travelling on the domestic commercial aircraft; or
 - (D) an aeromedical services crew member who is not working on the domestic commercial aircraft but is travelling on the domestic commercial aircraft to be able to commence work at another location; and
 - (vi) personal vehicle means a vehicle, within the meaning of the Act, that is not being operated for consideration, whether monetary or otherwise, at the relevant time; and
 - (vii) person in authority, in relation to an airport, includes –
 - (A) an authorised officer within the meaning of the Act; and
 - (B) an authorised officer within the meaning of the Emergency Management Act 2006; and
 - (C) a person employed or engaged by the airport for the purpose of monitoring safety, and security, at the airport; and
 - (D) a person employed or engaged by an airline for the purposes of monitoring safety, and security, on aircraft operated by the airline; and
 - (viii) premises has the same meaning as in the Act; and
 - (ix) Tasmanian airspace means the airspace over Tasmania, including the coastal waters and dependences of Tasmania; and
- (f) the direction, entitled Airports and aircrafts – No. 2, given by the me on 5 February 2021, is revoked.

Promotion Without Advertising

AGENCY: EDUCATION

It is my intention to request the Head of the State Service to exercise discretion to not advertise the following duties in accordance with section 40 (2) of the State Service Act 2000 and to promote the following permanent employee:

Name: A Buchanan

Duties Assigned: Regional HR Manager

Description of the Role: To lead and manage a strategic high level consultancy and advisory service together with the provision of specialist advice to Senior Officers, Directors School Principals and Managers throughout the Department on a range of Human Resource issues including performance management, people placement, conduct, grievances and people management issues.

Essential Requirements:

- A person is to provide evidence that they are vaccinated against COVID-19 or have an approved exemption.
 - A person is vaccinated against COVID-19 if the person has received all of the doses of a vaccine for COVID-19, necessary for the person to be issued with a vaccination certificate in respect of COVID-19 by the Australian Immunisation Register, or an equivalent document from a jurisdiction outside of Australia.
 - A person may be granted an exemption from providing evidence that they are vaccinated against the disease where the person demonstrates –
 - a. Medical contraindication
 - A person is unable to be vaccinated against the disease due to a medical contraindication if they:
 - a) provide evidence in a form provided and accepted by the Head of Agency from a medical practitioner (as defined by the Australian Immunisation Register as a medical practitioner who can grant a medical exemption) which certifies that the person has a medical contraindication that prevents them from being vaccinated against the disease.
 - Or
 - b) have a medical exemption, that applies to the vaccinations for the disease, that has been recorded on the Australian Immunisation Register, operated by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Government.
 - b. Exceptional circumstances
 - Demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Head of Agency.
- The Registration to Work with Vulnerable People Act 2013 requires persons undertaking work in a regulated activity to be registered. A regulated activity is a child related service or activity defined in the Registration to Work with Vulnerable People Regulations 2014. This registration must remain current and valid at all times whilst employed in this role and the status of this may be checked at any time during employment.
- Current Tasmanian Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (Registration Status – Employment)

Desirable Requirements:

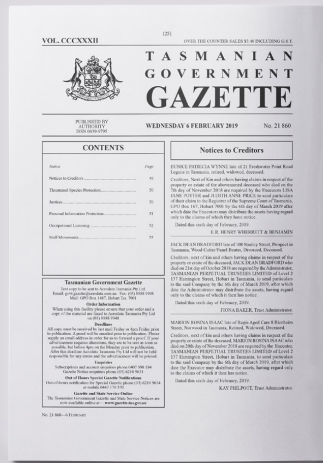

Qualifications in the area of Human Resource Management would be an advantage

State Service employees aggrieved by this intention may make application to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for a review under section 50(1)(b) of the State Service Act 2000. Applications for review are to be lodged with the Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 14 days of the publication of this notice in the Tasmanian Government Gazette.

Signed: Tim Bullard

Advertise in the TASMANIAN GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

If you want to communicate your business' products and services to government agencies, there is no better way than advertising in the weekly Government Gazette.

Not only delivered in hard copy format, the gazette is also fully digital, and compatible across phone, tablet and computer platforms. Full colour and the ability to embed hyperlinks to your website makes the digital gazette a powerful advertising tool.
